

WE HAVE A PART TIME FIXED TERM MATERNITY COVER VACANCY

FOR A BEHAVIOUR THERAPIST (14 hours per week)

Mon 8.10am-4.30pm, Tues 8.50am-12.15pm, Thurs 8.50am-12.15pm.

Start Date Required ASAP

The Ark Centre in Chelmsford, Essex is looking to employ a part-time behaviour therapist to join our team on a fixed term 12-month contract.

If you are energetic, fun and an enthusiastic individual looking to use your career to help others you have found the right place!

We require applicants to have a minimum of an NVQ Level 3 in Early Years, or a Psychology degree and ideally experience working with children with autism or social communication difficulties.

As a new behaviour therapist, you will be trained to provide 1:1 therapy sessions for pre-school age children with autism in our specifically designed therapy centre. Your training will be provided by our in house Board Certified Behaviour Analysts, Occupational Therapist and Speech and Language Therapist.

The Ark Centre will provide you with the skills to be able to update children's individual therapy programmes, provide parent support and train other agencies involved with your key child.

Our centre is a very fast paced, lively environment full of play, laughter and excitement.
Salary £7,300 per annum

Please note the centre IS NOT term time and we are open all year!

If you think you have what is required to join our team, please visit our website www.thearkcentre.org to download an application form and send it to admin@thearkcentre.org.
